National News—1965

1 A Wave for Friends—Cuban refugees waved to Cuban exiles on shore as their coast guard cutter approached Key West last fall. Such emotional scenes occurred frequently after Castro announced his "open door" policy, allowing certain groups of Cubans to leave his dictatorship.

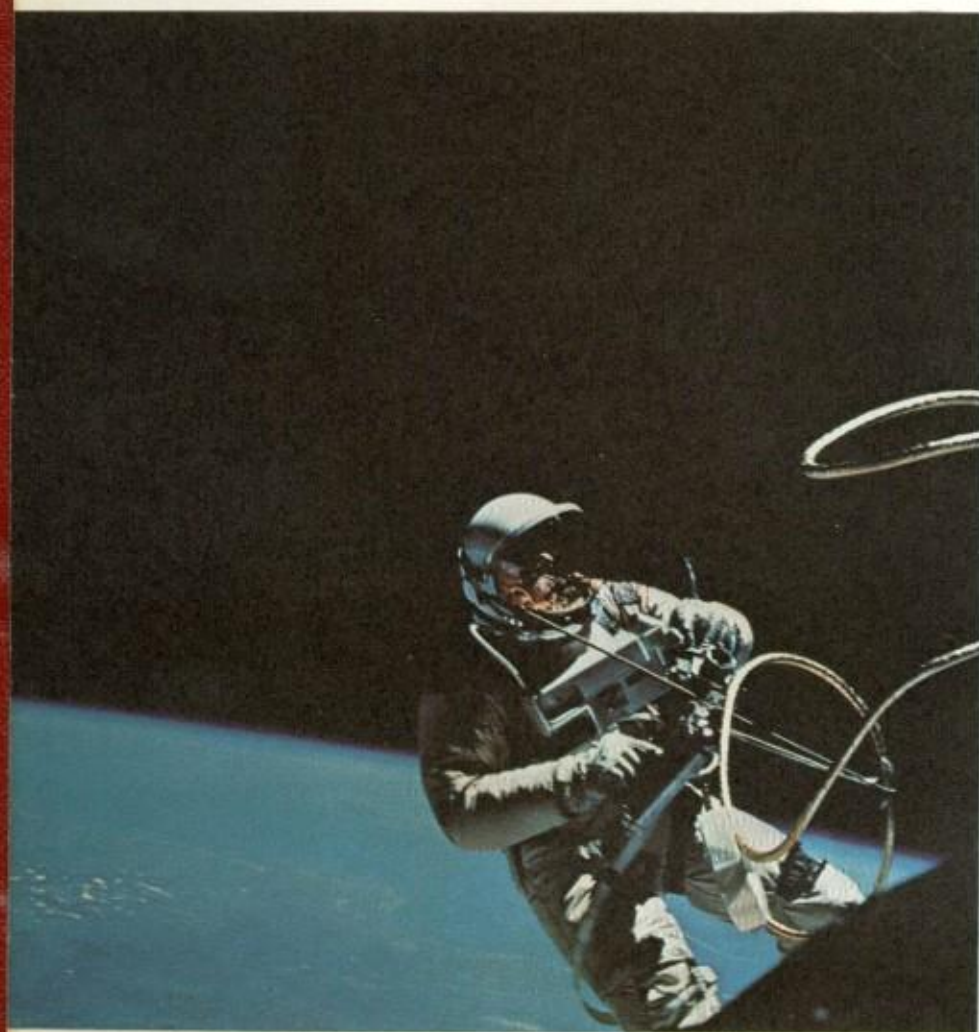

2 Pioneer in Space—Astronaut Edward White stepped from his Gemini IV space capsule and into the void of space last June. Maj. James McDivitt, his companion on a 3½-day orbital flight, had to coax White back into the capsule after he had traveled 20 minutes suspended from Gemini IV. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad were the next space twins to orbit the earth. They completed their 8-day flight in Gemini V during August.

3 Medicare Bill Signed—President Johnson signed the Medicare Bill into law July 30 with former President Truman at his side. Witnessing the event that had far-reaching effects on Social Security benefits for the elderly were (left to right) Lady Bird Johnson, Vice President Humphrey and Bess Truman. The ceremony was held in Truman Library in Independence, Mo.

4 Temporary Mood—Dodgers Manager Walter Alston's mood of dejection after the Minnesota Twins won the sixth World Series game did not last long. The Dodgers emerged victorious in the 7th game and captured the pennant.

5 Double Space Spectacular—Astronauts Wally Schirra and Tom Stafford got this view of the Gemini 7 spaceship December 15 while traveling in their Gemini 6 craft for their historic rendezvous adventure. Schirra and Stafford rode their red-hot craft back to earth the following day, but Gemini 7 completed a 14-day mission before its re-entry. Making the longest and most significant voyage in space in Gemini 7 were Frank Borman and James Lovell, Jr.

6 Plea for Peace—Pope Paul VI stood before the United Nations General Assembly in New York on October 4 to deliver his plea for world peace. His unprecedented, one-day visit in the U.S. was the culmination of plans by men of all faiths.

7 After Surgery—President Johnson was photographed in a reclining chair at Bethesda Naval Hospital the day after his gall bladder operation on October 8. He conducted the work of his office from his hospital room and his Texas ranch during his recuperation.

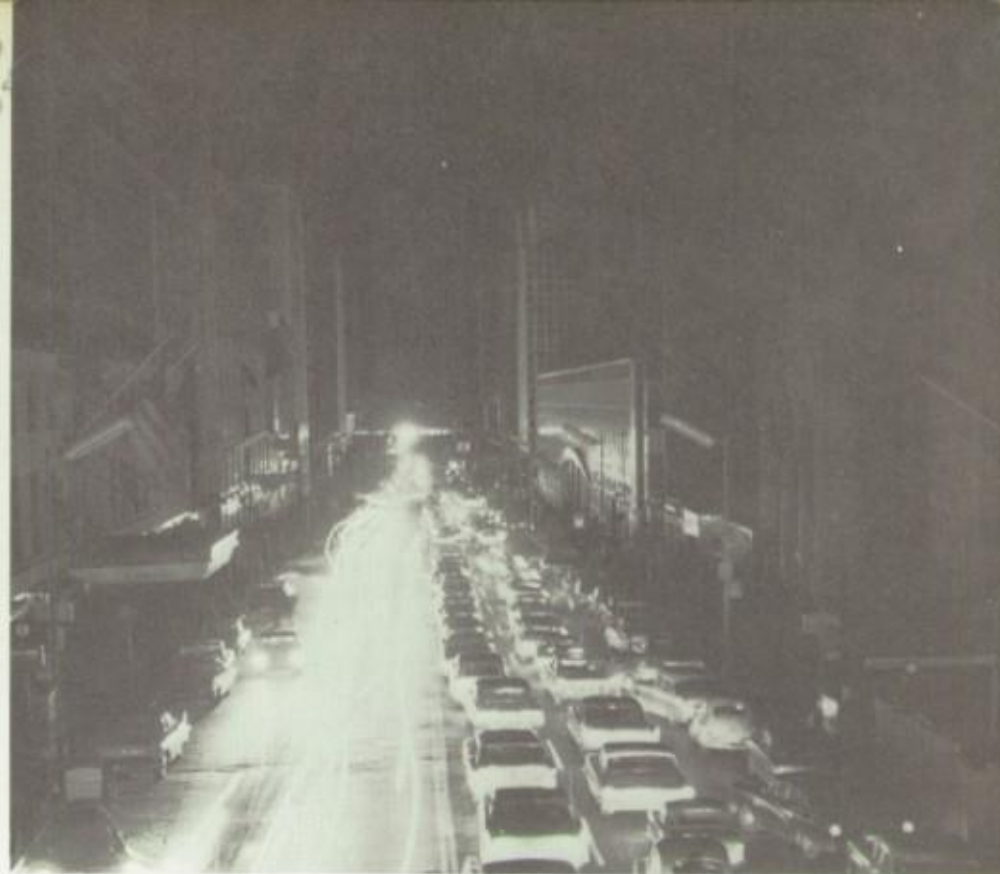

8 Proud Student—Charles Craig, 19-year-old freshman at Iowa university, demonstrated his criticism of draft-card burning incidents by displaying his draft card on his jacket with the note: "I'm a draft card carrying American and proud of it." Our role in the Vietnamese war sparked the incidents.

9 Blackout—The glittering metropolis of New York City was thrust into darkness on November 9 by a massive power failure affecting hundreds of miles along the eastern seaboard. City residents and commuters were stranded in offices, railroad and subway stations for hours before service was restored. The crippling condition was caused by a faulty relay at a Canadian generating station near Niagara Falls.

10 New Ambassador—Arthur Goldberg was named U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations by the President after the death of Ambassador Adlai Stevenson on July 14 in London. Goldberg was secretary of labor under President Kennedy and a U.S. Supreme Court Justice when named to the U.N. post.

11 Startling Fashions—Bold and contrasting blocks of color were the youthful fashion note of 1965. The eye-catching designs even extended the length of campus stockings worn with the costumes.

12 Royalty on Tour—Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, arrived in New York on November 4 for a whirlwind tour of the U.S. During their visit, they took time out for fun-filled activities such as a ride on a cable car in Frisco and gala parties in Hollywood and the nation's capital.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year, 1976, after making my fame and fortune as an international spy, I decided to calm my nerves by taking a tour of the United States. Before leaving my own country of England, I heard a rumor that Wendel Brown was there and my natural habit of sleuthing led me to him. He was in northern England running a fox hunting stable. After talking to Wendel, I decided to see how many others from the Class of '66 I could find.

Upon arriving in New York I ran into Paula Postel, or should I say Paula almost ran into me. She was buzzing by in one of her sports cars. It seems Paula is a fashion model and has an enormous collection of clothes, sports cars, and men. Some people have all the luck! Pat Adams was also in New York, where she was assistant editor of New Yorker magazine.

I stopped in Primghar to visit relatives. I ran into Bertus DeRidder, who had taken over his grandfather's pool hall. Bert was doing a booming business of his set-ups of Moo Juice.

I also saw Mariellen Rook who, (thanks to Mr. Davis' wonderful teaching), is head bookkeeper at Evan's Drive-In, which is run by Linda Ebel. Mariellen told me that Arvin Heemstra had his own jet bomber and had accidentally hit Primghar's suburbs while flying over the week before.

Ron Schueller gave up his band career to find a job that was steadier. He is now back in Primghar. The school custodian has retired and Ron has taken over his position. This is a full time job just cleaning up the chemistry lab and repairing the damages from the experiments performed by the students of the new science teacher, Connie Hadden. We always knew that Connie would go far---and the next experiment that blows up may be the time.

Dick Lorenzen is an artist in good ol' Primghar. It seems that he painted a picture of his favorite English teacher, which is now more famous than the Mona Lisa.

Wanting to travel in the true tradition of international spies, I rented an XKE so that I could get around to find other class members. On the way to Paullina the XKE broke down and I stopped at a farm. There I found Barbara Carnahan doing the daily chores. She told me that Jean Brown was hanging up service uniforms in Greenland. Barb called "Anderson's Auto Repair Shop" which is operated by Craig Anderson. Unfortunately, Craig is serving a jail sentence for bootlegging red tenners. It seems he tried to defend himself in court.

Many of the Class of '66 have remained in Northwest Iowa. Dennis Fjeld leads a new nation-wide motorcycle club-a confirmed chapter of Hell's Angels. His headquarters are in Aurelia.

Alice Koepp lives in Spencer where she distributes aspirin and applies band-aids to the junior high students.

Marilyn Engeltjes, I found at Arnolds Park. She owns and operates the stagecoach ride for the kiddies.

Linda Hughes resides in Mason City and owns Hughes' Insurance Company, which specializes in Honda insurance.

Once a spy, always a spy, and I could not rest until I found the remainder of the Class of '66. My information led me to the South, namely Texas. I found Gus Bower was a big name television producer with the number one rated show-"Batman".

I journeyed on to the West Virginia hills. There was Jeff Anliker nursing the sick---cows, that is. The one act plays must have inspired him.

I traveled further south to Florida. In Aqualand I saw John Link who wrestles alligators. John told me that Craig Jenness was still girl-chasing, only he had gone to Mars where the girls have three eyes, all the better for winking.

Janet Crouch was in Georgia, where she is a butcher in a member store of one of the most famous chains in the U.S.-Uncles Jon's, owned by none other than Jon Toal. I understand the secret of his success is the check-out girls he employs.

From the Southeast I traveled to the Southwest. I found Richard Magnuson in Phoenix, Arizona, with ten little Magnusons. He is still in good physical shape, running after the eldest.

Just outside of Phoenix was Wanda Brundage. She and her husband run a dude ranch and are a nationally famous riding couple.

In Los Angeles I had lunch with Bill Merry, who is a professional pool shark-it seems all those hours of practice paid off. Bill told me that he had seen Steve Ransom only a month before.

You know Steve entered the service immediately after high school. Now, ten years later, he is writing articles for college students on how to escape the draft.

As I was leaving the restaurant I collided with a shady-looking character. Something about him was familiar so I followed him. Suddenly it dawned on me-it was Larry Lucas! I cornered him and after explaining who I was, he told me that he was still dodging the draft.

Larry gave me some information on Cheryl Miller. Cheryl is in deepest Africa and has a thriving business selling stilts to the Pygmies.

In 1966 Ron Shea was such a success on television they asked him to return. I found him at NBC studios in Los Angeles. He is advertising for Lux Liquid. The chores really helped to soften those delicate hands.

I traveled up the coast to Seattle, Washington, and met Ron Stangeland, better known as snake. Ron is a shrewd Businessman selling rain coats. He is working toward his tenth million this month.

After all this traveling around the country, I decided that being a spy was easier and more restful. So I returned to headquarters to take a new assignment-tracking down the foreign agents who had stolen the formula for Tootsie-Roll Pops.

We finally reached the position of "Upperclassmen" as Juniors this year. As might be expected, we found the past year to be the busiest and the most fun of all our high school days. Our first big task was Homecoming which was built on the theme "Moon River." Next we gave a class play entitled "Crazy But Cute." It proved to be a large success and a lot of fun for us Juniors. Prom was the largest task that we undertook during the year. Decorating our gym to the theme of "Paradise Isle" many will have fond memories of working on it as well as attending the dance at the beautiful finished product. We express our thanks to our sponsors, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Steffens, Mr. Verburg, Miss Houston, and Mr. Hewett, for being able to help and control our large group. Also we owe many thanks to those who worked industriously at football and basketball stands to raise money for our various expenses throughout the year. We have finished the biggest and busiest year in high school, but now await our true challenge of all our high school years--becoming a Senior and preparing for our futures in the world.

World News—1965

1 Humanitarian Dies—Dr. Albert Schweitzer died in September at Lambarenè, his primitive hospital at the African jungle outpost of Gabon. The famed physician, who reached his 90th birthday in January, worked most of his life to relieve the suffering of jungle natives.

2 Queen Speaks—Queen Elizabeth II dedicated the John F. Kennedy memorial at Runnymede, England on May 14. Mrs. Kennedy is seated to the left and Prince Philip to the right of the queen. Carolyn Kennedy is seated between the queen and her mother, and Sen. Robert Kennedy stands behind Mrs. Kennedy.

3 Miss Universe—The reigning queen of beauty in the universe during the year was a representative from Thailand.

4 Bosch Returns—Former Dominican Republic President Juan Bosch was vehement in his address at a rally September 25, shortly after his return to Santo Domingo.

5 Wins in Run-Off—Charles de Gaulle polled 55.2 per cent of the vote in a run-off election against Francois Mitterrand on December 19. The vote gave DeGaulle the French presidency for another 7 years, but the strength of the Socialist-Communist candidate corroded the popularity of the 71-year-old president.

6 Agrees to Cease-Fire—Pakistani Foreign Minister Zulfikar Bhutto (right) agreed in the U.N. Security Council on September 22 to accept the Council's cease-fire order in the undeclared war between Pakistan and India. Pakistan's announcement came after India had agreed to the order.

7 Abortive Coup Fails—Indonesian President Sukarno was toppled from power for a brief 20 hours last fall. He gestured at a cabinet meeting on October 6 during his first public appearance after the coup, which seriously shook his one-man rule.

8 Soviet Winner—Russian author Mikhail Sholokhov was vacationing in the Ural region on October 18 when he heard he had been awarded the 1965 Nobel Prize for Literature. The December award ceremony was held in Stockholm.

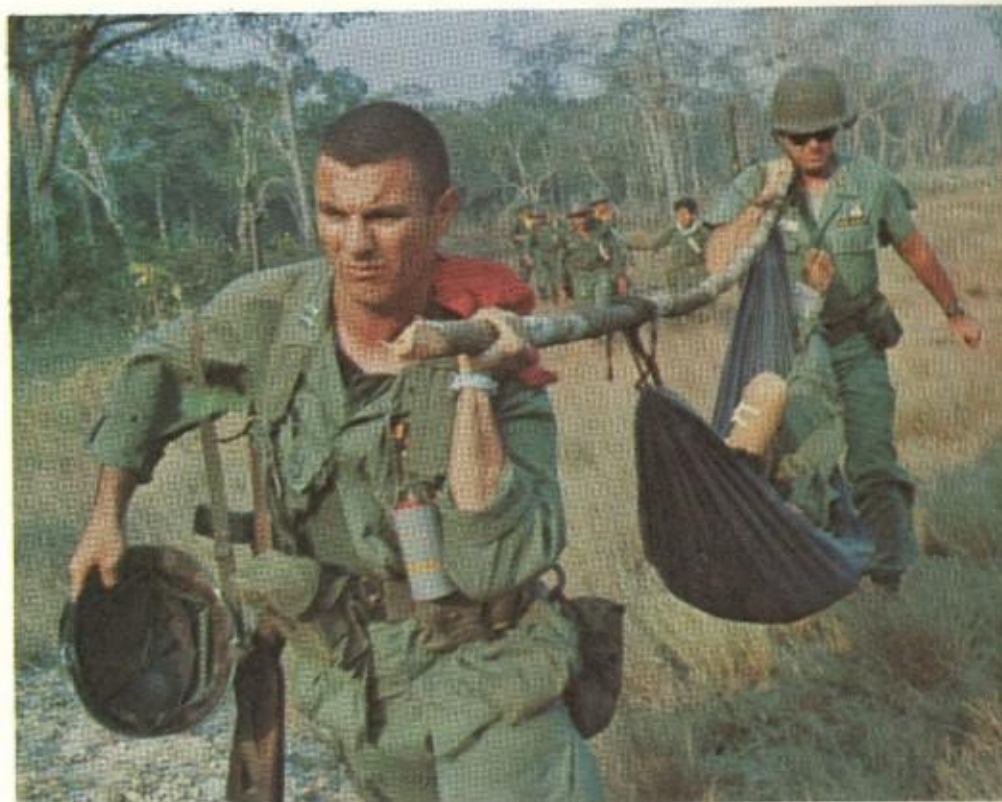

9 Return to Desolation—Hundreds of families returned to the wreckage of their homes, destroyed by eruption of Taal volcano, south of Manila, on September 28. Volcanic ash covered a six-mile-square area. The death toll was estimated at 500.

10 Price of War—The number of casualties increased as the U.S. stepped up its military action in Vietnam. American advisors took part in many helicopter missions, carrying wounded soldiers, both Vietnamese and American, to copters on makeshift litters for evacuation to Saigon.

11 Reason to Celebrate—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany waved to a cheering crowd in Bonn after his Christian Democrats surged to victory in the September 19 parliamentary elections. Mayor Willy Brandt's Social Democrats suffered defeat in the voting.

12 Colonial Rule Shaken—Rhodesian Premier Ian Smith broadcast a proclamation of sovereign independence for Rhodesia on November 11. The split from Britain was made in an attempt to insure a white minority rule of the African colony. It was the first such move against Britain since the American colonies broke away in 1776. Britain retaliated swiftly and took the problem to the U.N. Security Council, which asked all nations to enforce an oil embargo against the African colony.
